Like our Spa Scent?

Our Spa's aromatherapy is a special concoction of Citrus and the Ylang Ylang essence

Citrus oils help to neutralise acid in your body and stimulate the immune system to fight infections. Another key feature of the citrus oils is that they have uplifting, invigorating and anti-depressant qualities.

The Ylang Ylang, pronounced as "EE-lang EE-lang", is a highly appreciated flower in perfumery and aromatherapy. This flower is a blessing in disguise for many health problems. Ylang Ylang essence has a hormonal effect and is used in aromatherapy for the cure of many feminine problems. Ylang-ylang essential oil can be used to cure infections in internal organs such as the stomach, intestines, colon, and urinary tract. It is also good for people suffering from insomnia, fatigue, frigidity and other stress related conditions. It is extremely effective in maintaining moisture and oil balance of the skin and keeps the skin looking hydrated, smooth, and young.

Types of Oil Massage and its Benefits

Geranium

Geranium oil is commonly used as an element in aromatherapy for its many health benefits. It's used as a holistic treatment to improve your physical, mental and emotional health. Used by the Egyptians for promoting beautiful and radiant skin, geranium oil is now used to treat acne, reduce inflammation, alleviate anxiety and balance hormones. This sweet-smelling oil can also uplift your mood, lessen fatigue and promote emotional wellness.

Green Tea

Green tea oil, when used as massage oil is one of the best healing oils that can help to reduce aches and rejuvenates the particular parts of the body. Green tea oil contains catechin which is a powerful antioxidant that protects your skin from UV damage. Green tea oil penetrates skin quickly and deeply, giving you optimum hydration without the greasy feel.

Jasmine

Jasmine oil, a type of essential oil derived from the jasmine flower, is a popular natural remedy for improving mood, overcoming stress and balancing hormones. Jasmine oil has been used for hundreds of years in parts of Asia as a natural remedy for depression, anxiety, emotional stress, low libido and insomnia.

Frangipani Essence

Frangipani essence oil is used in the bath, in massage oils and creams and in various beauty products for natural skin care that defies the aging process. The ability of the essence to increase self-awareness and inner peace has drawn people to it to ease stress and anxiety and revive their spirits. During massages, the combined aromatherapy scent of frangipani essential oil and its moisturizing properties makes it perfect to rub on the skin. It is an incomparable sensual experience that's sure to regain confidence and self-esteem most especially for women.
